

Asefa

Masterpiece is the word that defines her
Her face is a comparable rather a metaphor
The epitome of nature's beauty
The craftsmanship of the creator
Her skin tone perfectly blended like art on canvass
Her movement is in perfect balance like the orbit of the planets
And the motion of the universe
Her every step is a melody
A song and rhythm perfect in every key and note
The brightness of her eyes dims the glitter of the stars in the sky
Her smile is an ornamental jewel
A befitting embellishment for any crown
She is an African Princess
Her presence is like incense
An alluring fragrance of the finest herbs and flowers
As captivating as magical spells
She is beauty,
The essence of womanhood
She is love, she is life
She is Asefa the embodiment of beauty
