

It is with deep sorrow I do write these words, which should not have been written at this time.

We have lost one of the brilliant, intelligent, kindest and gentlest people I have ever had the privilege to know. Gugu was an inspiration to me. He had intelligence, wit, charm and a caring heart that made him a great friend. I never heard an ill word spoken of him. He was kind, compassionate, and a true gentleman.

I will always be thankful that I had the opportunity to get to know him and to call him a friend. I will cherish his memory for years to come especially during his visit to Ghana, the time we shared and how he encouraged me to pursue my academic career.

Is simply difficult and sad to say goodbye.

May the good Lord keep you.

Yvette Ussher (PhD)
University of Ghana